

Scottish Nursing, Midwifery and Allied Health Professions Research Awards 2017

Supported by the:

Chief Nursing Office and Chief Scientist Office for Scotland, Allied Health Professions Directorate, NHS Education for Scotland, Scottish Executive Nurse Directors & Council of Deans Scotland

We are delighted to announce that the 2017 awards for Scottish based nurse, midwife and allied health professional researchers is now open for nominations.

Take this opportunity to highlight your research by nominating yourself, your team or your colleagues.

Awards will recognise excellence and be given for the following categories:

TEAM AWARDS FOR RESEARCH OR PROGRAMMES OF RESEARCH

- For INNOVATION in solving a clinical problem
- For IMPACT on practice or policy
- For 3* or 4* paper published in a peer reviewed journal during 2016/17

AWARDS FOR INDIVIDUAL ACHIEVEMENT IN RESEARCH

- Early career researcher award
- Established career researcher award
- Originality of ideas in Doctoral studies

A separate application form must be completed for each category applied for.

Winners will be announced at an Awards Ceremony in Edinburgh in November.
All applicants and nominees are expected to attend this event.

Winners will receive a certificate and a monetary award to be used specifically for travel to further their research links, conference attendance or relevant research training.

We look forward to receiving your entry. Don't delay, submit an entry today!
